The property has undergone significant renovations over the past 24 months, so there is little for you to do, except bring your bags and your favourite book and head upstairs to the private balcony for some well deserved R&R.

The property is so full of surprises and offer several places to enjoy. The huge outdoor entertaining was built for any weather and the north east aspect is perfect for all year comfort.

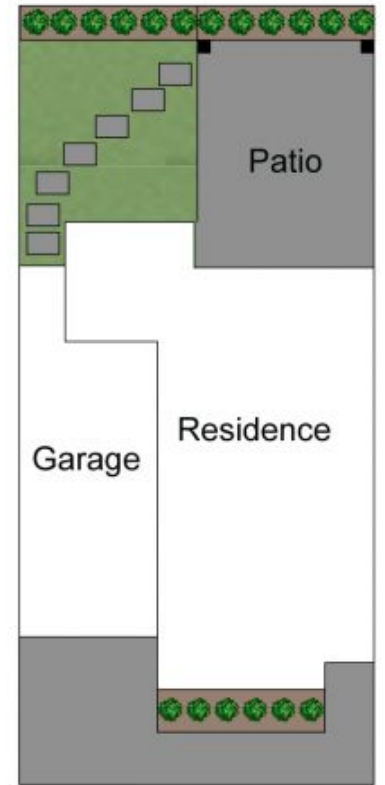

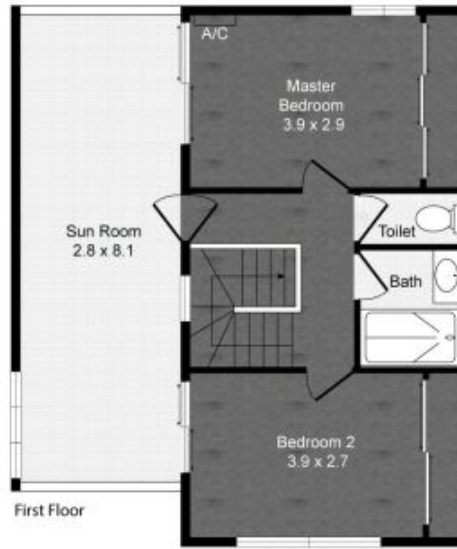

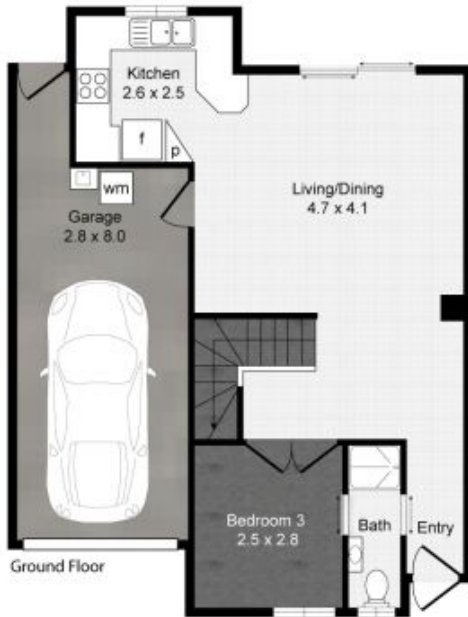

The small complex of seven is mostly owner occupied and that alone offers a strong advantage over larger complexes.

If walking is your thing, you'll be able to head up to Cleveland Point and watch the breathtaking sunrise and sunsets each day. Grab some fish and chips at the
